

For information about Amish Door:
Kurt Kleidon
330-666-5984
kurtk@kleidon.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 22, 2011

Amish Door welcomes fall colors with annual Harvest Fest

Wilmot, Ohio—On Saturday, Oct. 8, Amish Door Village celebrates the arrival of autumn with the 6th annual Harvest Fest. This family-friendly festival is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on the lawn in front of the Amish Door Restaurant & Banquet Center.

Activities throughout the day include

- Square dance demonstrations featuring calling by Dick Mackey
- Log carving demonstrations
- Blacksmith demonstrations
- Inflatable games
- Animals and petting farm from the Farm at Walnut Creek
- Kids Activities: games, face painting, hay maze, corn box, cookie decorating, pumpkin painting
- Book signing by Marlene C. Miller, author of “Grace Leads Me Home”
- Pumpkin recipe contest
- An employee pumpkin carving contest with judging by guests
- Hay rides
- Food and beverages

New this year during the Harvest Fest is the Craft Show, located in our banquet center. It will feature 33 tables of crafts from 28 vendors. Admission is free to the Harvest Fest and Craft Show; some of the games and activities have a small fee.

For more information about this Amish Door event, visit www.amishdoor.com or call 888-264-7436. The Amish Door Village is located on 1210 Winesburg Street, US 62, in Wilmot on the border of Stark and Holmes Counties. The Amish Door is family owned and operated and has been serving the community since 1977.

###