Amish Door Village welcomes the talented Legacy Five

Revamped and recharged gospel group will take the stage in Amish Country

Wilmot, Ohio: Year after year, Legacy Five is recognized as one of gospel music's favorite artists. With new pianist Trey Ivey, the refreshed group will visit Amish Door Village on December 1 for one of its spiritually invigorating performances.

"When I first heard Trey a couple years ago, I thought he was extremely talented, and I wanted to keep an eye on him," says Legacy Five co-founder and lead singer Scott Fowler. "Then when Tim Parton announced he would be leaving, I knew it was time to give Trey an audition."

Ivey is from Cleveland, Ga., and officially joined the group in February. "I am very excited about joining Legacy Five and look forward to seeing what the future holds," he says. "It is a real honor to follow in the footsteps of two of my heroes, Roger (Bennett) and Tim (Parton)."

The group was recently honored with a Singing News Fan Album of the Year Award for their work on "Jubilee," a collaboration with fellow gospel groups The Booth Brothers and Greater Vision.

Past recognitions for Legacy Five include a Song of the Year nomination for "I Stand Redeemed" and a Favorite Album of the Year nomination for their "London" album, along with various Dove nominations, which are reserved for Christian music performers. With all of their radio hit singles, such as "I Found Grace" and "I Stand Redeemed," their performance is sure to be filled with beloved tunes and family enjoyment.

Along with the entertainment, the Amish Door Restaurant provides a lavish home-cooked meal, including a fresh garden salad and their famous Amish Door pie.

All dinner theaters are held in the Amish Door Banquet Center in Wilmot at 1210 Winesburg Street, US 62. Seating begins at 6:15 p.m. Tickets are $38 with discounts available for groups. For reservations and information call 1-888-AMISH-DOOR or visit www.amishdoor.com.
