The Kingsmen visit Amish Door Village

Southern Gospel comes to Amish Country for a night of Christian music

Wilmot, Ohio: The Kingsmen, a six-person gospel group, will return to the Amish Door Village for an evening concert on October 6. The group was founded in 1956, and over the course of 55 years has grown to inspire people through their passion for God and music.

There are few groups that can boast the kind of legacy like that of The Kingsmen. They emerged with their own distinct style, releasing music that would solidify them as pioneers in gospel music. To this day they remain one of Southern Gospel music's most influential artists.

"Our lineup may change, but the goal remains the same," says manager and bass singer Ray Dean Reese. "It's to keep putting smiles on the faces of our fans and to see them get saved through Jesus Christ."

Along with the entertainment, the Amish Door Restaurant provides a lavish home-cooked meal, including a fresh garden salad and their famous Amish Door pie.

All gospel concerts are held in the Amish Door Banquet Center in Wilmot at 1210 Winesburg Street, US 62. Seating begins at 6:15 p.m. Tickets are $38 with discounts available for groups. For reservations and information call 1-888-AMISH-DOOR or visit www.amishdoormarketplace.com.
