Amish Door gives “Clues” for New Year’s Eve

Wilmot, Ohio: The Amish Door Village is pleased to send out 2011 with “Clues: The Butler’s Belfry,” an interactive murder mystery being performed Dec. 31. The show is an original production of 34west Theater Company.

“Clues: The Butler’s Belfry” is a spoof of the classic board game Clue and offers audiences witty banter, exaggerated characters and family-friendly fun in solving a mystery.

Featured in the cast are 34west members Jeff Querin, Stephen Wayne, Maria Householder and Magdalyn Donnelly. Each actor plays multiple parts, which adds to the silliness of the performance. Querin adds, “It’s very similar to what you’d see on ‘Mad TV’ or ‘Saturday Night Live,’ where the same actor plays many roles.”

Along with the entertainment, the Amish Door Restaurant provides a lavish home-cooked meal, including a fresh garden salad and their famous Amish Door pie.

All dinner theaters are held in the Amish Door Banquet Center in Wilmot at 1210 Winesburg Street, US 62. Seating begins at 6:15 p.m. Tickets are $38 with discounts available for groups. For reservations call 1-888-264-7436 or visit www.amishdoormarketplace.com. For more information about the Amish Door Village or their dinner theater series, visit www.amishdoor.com.
