“Yuletide Jamboree” celebrates down-home fun

Wilmot, Ohio—For the holidays the Amish Door Village presents an all-new holiday musical, “Yuletide Jamboree” by 34west Theater. Featuring bluegrass songs and family friendly comedy, this dinner theater premiers Nov. 16, with additional performances Nov. 17-19 and Dec. 13-15.

In “Yuletide Jamboree,” a front porch radio show heats up a frosty Christmas night. All bets are off when Linda Lu burns the Christmas turkey and jeopardizes her last chance at winning the Miss Snow Ball competition. With the help of the radio show and two bumbling postal workers, Linda Lu discovers what’s most important. Brimming with foot-stomping holiday tunes, the musical includes “Suzy Snowflake” and “Christmas Time’s a Comin’.”

In recent years, 34west has presented other “Jamboree” musicals with the same cast and characters. “This is the fourth installment of the Jamboree series,” remarks 34west artistic director Jeffrey Querin. “Uncle Dwight, Jimmy D and Linda Lu are some of the most requested characters in our repertoire.”

The 34west holiday show features Stephen Wayne, Maria Householder and Querin, who plays the leading role. “We each portray multiple characters, make quick changes and try not to crack each other up in the process,” states Querin. “Audiences always say it’s reminiscent of old ‘Carol Burnett Show’ episodes—lots of laughter with a touch of sentimentality.”

Along with the entertainment, the Amish Door Restaurant provides a lavish home-cooked meal, including a fresh garden salad and their famous Amish Door pie.

All dinner theaters are held in the Amish Door Banquet Center in Wilmot at 1210 Winesburg Street, US 62. Seating begins at 6:15 p.m.; matinee seating on Nov. 18 and 19 and Dec. 14 begins at 12:15 p.m. Tickets are $38 with discounts available for groups.
